MEETING DETAILS FOR LASSO 2008 IN CORVALLIS, OREGON

LASSO IN THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST

Oregon State University in Corvallis, Oregon is pleased to host the first annual LASSO conference in the Pacific Northwest. Although Oregon has not shared a border with Mexico since Guadalupe Hidalgo, social and economic forces have created a linguistic and cultural environment that increasingly resembles the Southwest experience. The convergence of cultures and languages has not always gone smoothly, and although the state is known for its progressive politics and is one of the few states with an English Plus resolution on record protecting linguistic diversity, LASSO will be taking place this year just as ballots with an anti-bilingual education initiative are mailed to Oregon voters. The LASSO 2008 organizers invite the membership to take a step beyond our usual geographic boundaries to experience firsthand the changes and challenges facing this picturesque and vibrant region.

LASSO XXXVII CONFERENCE THEME AND PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

The LASSO membership has always included a number of linguists and educators committed to public engagement. In order to continue our exploration of the connection between linguistics as a discipline and the political and social challenges that face contemporary society, the theme for the Corvallis conference will be "Building Communities and Making Connections." The keynote address will be delivered by James Crawford, president of the Institute for Language and Education Policy and former executive director of the National Association for Bilingual Education. The Corvallis meeting will also feature a special session honoring the work of Garland Bills, a linguist whose service to the profession and to the Spanish-speaking communities of New Mexico and the greater Southwest is legendary. This meeting also marks the birth of a special interest group called "Making Connections beyond the Academic Community" that will allow us to continue our conversation about community building beyond the 2008 conference. The registration packets will also include tickets to a special Hispanic Heritage Month concert by the Corvallis-OSU Symphony immediately following the presidential reception where we'll hear favorites like de Falla's Sombrero de tres picos and Ravel's Rapsodie espagnole.

A preliminary program with further details appears inside this newsletter. All conference sessions will take place on the Oregon State University campus in Corvallis, Oregon.

REGISTRATION & FOOD

The registration fee includes a printed program, access to all academic/plenary sessions, light snacks and coffee breaks between sessions, the presidential reception, annual banquet, and a ticket to the Corvallis-OSU Symphony. The advance registration fee, valid through September 15, is $85 for current students and $125 for all others. After September 15th the price of registration increases to $95 for students and $135 for all others. To register for the conference using our convenient and secure Google Checkout system, visit http://oregonstate.edu/dept/foreign_lang/lasso/registration.html and select the appropriate fee from the drop-down box. Please note that due to our facilities and catering contracts, we are unable to provide any refunds after October 1, 2008.

LODGING

The official conference hotel is the Hilton Garden Inn Corvallis, located on the south edge of campus just across the street from the conference center where the keynote and presidential addresses will be held. Special rates of $102 per room are available between October 16, 2008 and October 19, 2008. Rooms at this rate will be available until September 10, 2008 or until the block reserved for LASSO is sold out. Please visit the LASSO XXXVII web site for a direct reservation link to the Hilton Garden Inn Corvallis. There you may also find information on other local lodging options.

TRANSPORTATION

Corvallis does not have direct commercial airline service, but may be reached by flying into the Portland International Airport (PDX), the Eugene airport (EUG), or the nearby capital of Salem (SLE). Eugene is served primarily by United and Horizon/AlaskaAir, and Portland is served by nearly all major carriers. Salem, while closest to Corvallis, is only served by SkyWest flights from their Salt Lake City hub. Air travelers are highly encouraged to use the Eugene option if possible. Rail service from Los Angeles is also available on the Amtrak Coast Starlight, which makes a stop in the nearby town of Albany.

Ground transportation between Portland and Corvallis is available through Hut Shuttle (1-888-257-0126) and costs around $85 per person for a round trip ticket. Transportation from Eugene is currently available through OmniShuttle (1-800-741-5097), a shared-ride service that requires advance reservations at least 72 hours in advance. The charge is $50 for the first person plus an additional $5.00 for each additional person traveling on the same reservation. All three airports offer car rental services. Please keep in mind that the distance between PDX and the OSU campus is approximately 110 miles and the distance from Salem or Eugene is 40-50 miles, so private taxis will not be a cost-effective option for most people.

AWARD FOR STUDENTS

All students are eligible to submit their LASSO papers for the Helmut Esau Award, a $250 prize given annually for the best student paper presented at the conference.

To be considered for the 2008 Esau Prize, polished, article-length manuscripts should be sent to Susana Rivera-Mills at the following address:

Susana Rivera-Mills
Dept. of Foreign Languages and Literatures
Oregon State University
210 Kidder Hall
Corvallis, OR 97331-4603

following our fall meeting and must be in her hands by January 1, 2009.

This award is named in honor of Helmut Esau, who was active in the early days of LASSO. Professor Esau died in an automobile accident shortly after he was elected to the LASSO presidency, and his colleagues at the time established the Esau Award to commemorate his contributions to the Linguistic Association of the Southwest and to the profession at large.

The winner will be announced in the February 2009 Newsletter.

LASSO EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The LASSO Executive Committee will meet on Thursday night, October 16 at 8:30. Officers and Board Members are expected, but all members are welcome and invited to attend.

Anyone interested in hosting a LASSO conference in the future should attend or at least send a written proposal in advance to Executive Director Regina Morin (rmorin@tcnj.edu).

BUSINESS MEETING

If at all possible, schedule your travel plans to include your attendance at the Business Meeting held at the end of the conference. All members are welcome to attend. Your input is valued!

RENEWAL TIME!

Please remember that presenting a paper at the annual LASSO conference is a privilege of membership. Also, only those who are LASSO members may have their work published in the Southwest Journal of Linguistics. Your LASSO membership runs from January 1 to December 31 each year.

If your membership has lapsed, or you want to become a member for the first time, please fill out a membership form (at the end of this newsletter) and send it with the appropriate dues amount to Dr. Regina Morin, The College of New Jersey, Modern Languages, P.O. Box 7718, Ewing, NJ, 08628, USA.

To ensure that your membership is up to date prior to the conference, please send in your membership forms by September 15, 2008.

THE BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

Membership in LASSO demonstrates commitment to the study of linguistics and provides scholars and students alike the opportunity to develop professional friendships, to obtain information about teaching and research, and to exchange ideas and network with each other. LASSO members receive two newsletters per year and two issues per year of the Southwest Journal of Linguistics.

Now is also a good time to check local library holdings; if your school does not receive the Southwest Journal of Linguistics, by all means request that your institution subscribe today. Dues for 2008 are: Lifetime--US$450, Regular -- US $40, Student/retired/unemployed -- US $25, Institutional -- US $60.

If you are outside of the United States, please add a $15 surcharge to these rates for international postage.

Need More Info? All of this information and more is available on the conference web site at http://oregonstate.edu/dept/foreign_lang/lasso. Questions about papers, panels, or other program events should be submitted to Susana Rivera-Mills at LASSO2008@gmail.com. FUTURE CONFERENCE PROPOSALS

Proposals to host future LASSO conferences are always welcome. Hosting a LASSO meeting brings professional recognition to you and to your institution and provides an opportunity for a university to highlight and showcase its resources.

Individuals who think they might like to host a meeting should consider attending the Executive Meeting on Thursday, October 16, 2008. As a minimum, your proposal should include tentative meeting dates, (be sure the dates don't conflict with similar conferences or with major local events that would restrict the availability of hotel rooms), a potential theme for the conference, candidates for the plenary speakers, meeting site (hotel and/or campus) with space available for at least 3 parallel sessions, potential lodging sites. If known, you may also wish to include any potential commitments from your institution and/or other organizations in support of hosting the conference, and any other selling points for your location. . An excellent set of detailed guidelines regarding the responsibilities of local arrangement committees is found on Mary Jane Hurst's website (<http://www.faculty.english.ttu.edu/hurst/lassolocal.html>). For further information, contact the Executive Director, Regina Morin at rmorin@tcnj.edu.

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

Keep those submissions coming! Our Editors would love to read your work and consider it for inclusion in future SWJL volumes! Joint Editors Pamela Anderson-Mejías and Hugo Mejías at the University of Texas Pan-American are accepting manuscripts for consideration for publication during 2008-2009. Four hard copies of your manuscript may be forwarded to them at the following address: Pamela Anderson-Mejías and Hugo A. Mejías, Joint Editors, Southwest Journal of Linguistics, Department of Modern Languages, University of Texas—Pan American, 1201 University Drive, Edinburg, Texas, 78541, USA. Manuscripts may also be sent electronically to swjlasso@utpa.edu, but must also be accompanied by hard copies to the above mailing address.

Manuscripts are to be prepared according to the Language style sheet, published annually in the December LSA Bulletin and available at:

<http://www.lsadc.org/info/pubs-lang-style.cfm>

In addition to meeting Language requirements, Southwest Journal of Linguistics contributors should also:

- Prepare manuscripts using Word, WordPerfect or another common word processing program for PC or Mac. Contact the editor for guidance in using special symbols.
- Submit manuscripts in either English or Spanish.
- Include an abstract in English of between 100 and 150 words.
- Submit four hard copies of the manuscript. Once a manuscript has been accepted for publication, the revised manuscript must be submitted in both hard copy and on diskette.

Given the comprehensive goal of the journal, attention is drawn particularly to the Language style sheet provision that contributors provide the names and addresses of appropriate referees.
